September 2019

Just in Time!

Last month we shared about the lady that was saved in the hospital. When I went back to the hospital to follow up, I was amazed to find out that she had passed away two days after she was saved. It never ceases to amaze me about how good God is to get the gospel to someone who is crying out for Him wanting to know Him. Please pray for all of the people that we get to talk to about the Lord during the week. We never know how much time is left for any individual.

Bible Study in the Plaza!

There is a neighborhood in Cordoba where we would love to see a church planted. It is a very centrally located place that would be able to reach several surrounding areas. We started having a weekly Bible study in the open plaza and hope to continue to make contacts. Please pray for this outreach. I will put more information about this part of the city in future reports.

Trip to Carlos Pellegrini, Santa Fe

We are very thankful to Independent Baptist Pastor, Oscar Zamora for allowing us to continue to help and teach in this town where there is no church at all except one Catholic church. Jonathan, Elijah and I had gone at the end of the month and spent the weekend preaching, teaching, discipling and singing among other things. Every time that we go there has been a good crowd of people and a lot of excitement about the future. The people there have been talking and planning to rent a place to meet and are in the process of renting a meeting place across from the bus terminal. That decision was completely from them and not influenced by either me or brother Oscar. What a blessing to have been a part of this outreach from the beginning.

So Much More to Write About, but no More Space to Write!

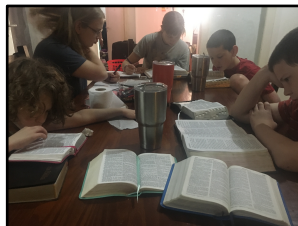

Thoughts from Stacie:

Here in Argentina the seasons are reversed. A new school year doesn't begin until around March. However since we Homeschool, our school year is a little more flexible. In September, I took back over the responsibility of Homeschooling the children in order to free Scott up to focus on ministry work. We do our reading lessons from both our Spanish and English Bibles. We're also reviewing math basics in both English and Spanish. The kids have done well keeping up with it all and are learning so much.

Also this past month Elisabeth started taking violin lessons with me, and Ruth began taking private flute lessons at the same school. With all the musicians we have in our home we are never lacking in "joyful noise". Even Joanna enjoys strumming her little ukulele with us.

The last weekend of September while Scott and the boys were helping minister in Carlos Pelligrini, the girls and I went back to the park and continued our weekly Bible Study there. We want people in that neighborhood to recognize us and ask us questions. Please pray for our family as we seek out opportunities to share the gospel.
