Missionaries to Argentina

Year end recital at the university

November 2025

Many end of year classes, concerts, meetings, recitals and activities!

It has been a very active month. Here in Argentina, November corresponds to May in the US with all of the schools and activities about to close for the summer. Hopefully our schedule can slow down a little bit in December and January. Most of the classes that the kids take should be wrapping up for the year by the middle of December.

Anniversary and Thanksgiving!

On the 28th of this month, my wife and I celebrated our 29th anniversary, the day after Thanksgiving. I am very blessed to have my family with me as we minister to the people of Argentina.

A real turkey!

It may sound strange, but one of our highlights this month was being able to find a real turkey for thanksgiving! It wasn't cheap but we were at least able to find one. Normally, for thanksgiving, we bake a chicken or two in place of a turkey, since they are so hard to find!

Upcoming Christmas outreach!

Please pray for us as we prepare for two separate upcoming Christmas concerts. One on the 20th of December in the plaza in front of our meeting place and the second one on Christmas eve at Marcelo's house.

Taking a group of ladies to the district ladies meeting!

A game of chess with the youth after our Sunday night service.

Our last Greek class for the year!

Some of our youth after our Sunday night service!
Please keep these young guys in your prayers!

Please Pray for The Maness Family
