Missionaries to Argentina

March 2026

Tickets purchased!

We are so thankful to have our tickets purchased for furlough! We are planning on arriving in the US on the 29th of May. We have an overall plan for visiting churches during our time in the US. We would love to be able to visit you if the Lord allows us the opportunity. Please let us know if you would like to schedule a time for us to share with your church all that the Lord is doing in our lives.

KFC in Cordoba!

We took Elijah out for his birthday and surprised him with the fact that they had recently put in a Kentucky Fried Chicken at one of the malls here. All of the kids were beyond amazed with this new found knowledge as the only one that we had seen before was in Buenos Aires on the other side of the country. It was a lot of fun seeing their faces light up.

Disciple Making

I cannot begin to fully describe the blessing of watching our kids as they follow the Lord. Our son Jonathan has been a model to those who would touch the lives of others around them. He has a great heart to reach people with the Gospel and often finds himself in conversations with complete strangers about the Lord! I could not even begin to number the many lives that he has personally touched during our time here. Lord willing, we will be having a going away party for him before we leave on furlough. He has enrolled at South Arkansas University with a band scholarship. He is excited about their music program and that his cousin is also studying the trombone there. It is also a blessing that there is a scriptural church in the area for him to plug into. Please keep him in prayer as he works hard to prepare for the entrance exams and finishes up his senior year with us.

Princess Day!

Our daughters a few years ago declared March 15th as prince and princess day to be celebrated yearly. The girls celebrate the day by dressing up like princesses and convincing their brothers to dress up as well. Then they watched a princess movie and brought out the fancy tea set for a tea party. The boys are more than happy to oblige their sisters as there is always food involved in the festivities. I am very thankful to the Lord for my Family! They are a great source of blessing to me!
