Missionaries to Argentina

June 2026

A month of great visits!

During the last month, we have been traveling to visit several churches, see family in Michigan and attend the national meeting in Hot Springs, Arkansas.

ABA National Meeting

It was hard to describe how great it was to be able to attend the national meeting this month. For us, it has been a very long time! The last national meeting that we were able to attend was in 2017 before we left for Argentina! We have thought about you all, we have prayed for you all, but to see so many of you in person was truly a great, high joy for us. Never take your freedom and opportunity to assemble and to discuss the Lord's business for granted!

A week visiting my mother and churches in Michigan

After the national meeting we drove up to Michigan to be with my mother and visit family in that part of the country. We had a great visit even in the presence of multiple difficulties. In one week we had battery issues, fuel pump issues, storms with 80MPH winds, a large oak tree fallen on my mother's house, power outage, water outage, and my mother's dog lost and then found! If I wasn't there it would all sound made up! Through it all God protected us and received the glory.

A Special Thank You!

A special thank you to: Arp First Baptist, Landmark MBC of Athens TX, Walnut Street MBC of Hillsboro TX, Emmanuel MBC of Greenville TX, Brother Benjamin Jordan, Calvary MBC of Three Rivers, MI and Calvary MBC of South Haven, MI for the prayers and the offerings as we travel. Also a special thank you for the Roadside assistance from Brother Nathan Luellen and Brother Bryan Williamson!

We enjoyed having my mother and aunt with us when we visited Calvary MBC in Three Rivers, MI

One of our big goals right now is to raise funds for purchasing a permanent meeting place in Argentina!

Please Pray!

Currently we have in that fund: $3,530

We enjoyed going out to eat with my mother and aunt and friends!

Enjoying catching up with the Mort family after so many years!

Please Pray for The Maness Family
